General information about the application for a copy of the original act of birth

Do not return this document with your application.

What should you know?

All adoptees, including those under the age of 14 who have the consent of their parents or guardian, have the right to request a copy of their original act of birth (act of birth prior to adoption).

Applicants must prove their identity by enclosing the required documents. Please refer to page 2 of this leaflet to find out which documents are accepted.

You must enclose a photocopy of the attestation issued to you by the Ministère de la Santé et des Services sociaux.

You must send us your request by mail. The document you request will be sent to you by mail.

Eligibility to apply does not mean that the request for a copy of the original act of birth can be issued by the Directeur de l'état civil.

Language of issue of the copy of the original act of birth

The copy of the original act of birth is issued in the language in which the event was recorded.

Who can apply?

Only the adopted person, or his or her children if deceased, can obtain a copy of his original (pre-adoption) act of birth.

If the request is for a person under 18 years of age

Since the applicant must provide documents that a minor child may not be able to provide, it is recommended that one of the adoptive parents acts as applicant for the child.

Tutor or mandatary

If you are the tutor or mandatary of the person concerned, you must attach proof of this to the form.

Lawyer or notary

If you are a lawyer or notary applying on behalf of your client, you must enter your membership number after your family name in box 1 of the form. In box 11, you must enter your client's file number. If section 2 has not been completed and signed by the person to whom the application applies, you must enclose a document proving that you are mandated by this person.

You must enclose a photocopy of your membership card from the Chambre des notaires du Québec or the Barreau du Québec.

Checklist

To ensure that my application will be processed without additional delay:

- ☐ I have completed all sections of the form.
- ☐ I have completed the form in block letters (uppercase, lowercase, accented characters), in black or blue indelible ink.
